

Student Handout: Examination-In-Chief Role Play

Story of Events

Orla's story of events:	John's story of events:
Last class ended at 4.00 p.m.	I was cycling along the road
I went to my locker	Two people came out from the shop
I met my friend Eoin	One of them - a girl - stepped onto the road without looking up
We left for home	She walked out in front of me
We stopped in the shop on the way	She was listening to music on her iPod
I bought a roll, a banana and a drink	She wasn't paying attention
As we came out of the shop cars were passing	I had to swerve to avoid crashing into her.
I saw a cyclist coming towards us along the road
The cyclist was coming towards me
He just missed hitting me
He cycled off down the road
I was upset
We headed home
